RAW will begin and end in at the Rotary Pavilion at Willow Park West, 500 West 700 South, Logan Utah. All money earned will assist the Rotary Club of Logan to increase literacy here and abroad, to reduce hunger, and to fight life-threatening diseases around the planet by providing clean water.

The majority of this year's proceeds will go towards providing clean water in a community abroad.

- Culinary water for participants: Water from known sources (homes) will be available at the ride start and at the rest stops. Riders will fill their water bottles from those water coolers.
- All solid waste collected at the starting place and rest stops will be put in plastic bags and disposed of properly.
- Where there are no established public sanitary facilities at the rest stops there will be portable sanitary facilities with hand washing stations provided.

Insurance: The Rotary International insurance policy covers this event for liability. Each political entity will be named as an additional insured for this event only. That policy is renewed annually on July 1. Thus, a current certificate of insurance in the form of the attached will be provided after July 1, 2014 and before the event on July 26, 2014.

Fire Prevention and Emergency Medical Services: It is not believed that fire is one of the threats generated by this event. There will be a "sag-wagon" with first aid equipment that will respond to any not-so-serious problems.

Security plans and/or law enforcement response: The event will take place on public property including highways. Should there be a need for support from law enforcement the event organizers will contact the appropriate law enforcement body. All law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction over any part of the course will be notified of the event well ahead of time and reminded in the days immediately preceding the event.

Admission: A nominal fee is paid by each participant to cover the costs of the event.

Parking: There is ample parking in Willow Park at the beginning and ending of the event. Since the event is over by about 3:00 pm there is little competition for the parking in Willow Park other than that required for the farmers market. Past experience has shown that there is no conflict in this regards.
